

The Marian Anderson String Quartet proudly presents:

The 10th Anniversary MASQ Chamber Music Institute CMI@ SUNDOWN Performance Series

CONCERT 1: “The Character of Music”

June 16th: 6:30pm, First United Methodist Church Bryan Heritage Room Opening Day Faculty Concert, Free of Charge

Featuring: The Marian Anderson String Quartet

Tenor, Chris Hoffman; Actor Greg Wise, featuring ,Aesop’s Fable, “The Tortoise and the Hare”; Best Audition Winner, Bassist 14 year old Arthur Erickson

CONCERT 2: “CMI 10th Anniversary Celebration Downtown!”

June 20th: 6:30pm at the Frame Gallery Downtown, Free of Charge

VIVA Schubert!: Celebrating the 200th Anniversary of one of the greatest songs every written, Die Erlkonig, Celebrate the ultimate songster with a concert of Songs without Words

Featuring: The Marian Anderson String Quartet and CMI Alumni youth and adults

CONCERT 3: “A Teacher’s Legacy”

June 26th: 6:30pm, First United Methodist, Bryan Heritage Room, Free of charge

Celebrating the gift of music, learning and teaching. Each composer made special effort to seek out education; to teach as well as write and tonight we present to you a wonderful product of MASQ CMI, world premiere of a work by composer David Adams. Featuring: The Marian Anderson String Quartet and CMI Alumni

MASQ Public Masterclasses: June 19, 22 & 23 6:30 pm First United Methodist Bryan

Student Finale Concert: June 27th 4:00pm First United Methodist Bryan

For more information: Call 979-246-2162 or email us at masqmusic@yahoo.com

www.marianandersonstringquartet.com